- The weather forecast for Friday night into Saturday morning is for another round of snow. This will mean some decisions about Saturday finals sessions, which will be made on Saturday morning.
 - Should the decision be made to shut the pool for the day, the decision will be made in the morning by 10am and communicated to coaches/athletic directors. Any update will also be posted on the WISCA homepage (<http://wiscaorg.ipage.com/>).
 - Should the decision be made to close the pool on Saturday, then the finals sessions will be cancelled. All swimming events will be changed to timed finals.
 - For state entry purposes, the top three (3) finishers in each 4A event will receive 4A allocations to the state meet.
 - For state entry purposes, the top six (6) finishers in each 3A event will receive 3A allocations to the state meet.
 - The top twelve (12) finishers in each event, 4A and 3A, will be considered for wild cards.
 - Should the decision be made to keep the pool open for the day, the decision will be made in the morning by 10am and communicated to coaches/athletic directors. Any update will also be posted on the WISCA homepage (<http://wiscaorg.ipage.com/>).
 - Should the decision be made to keep the pool open on Saturday, then the finals sessions will run as scheduled below.
 - There will be no diving exhibition at the swimming finals this Saturday should they run.
